From: Tony Lau, Chair, Committee on Younger Members

Subject: CALL FOR NOMINATIONS: YOUNGER MEMBER AWARDS

The Committee on Younger Members (CYM) is actively soliciting nominations for the five Younger Member Awards listed below. The deadline for all award nominations is February 1, 2005. Nomination forms and additional information for all awards may be found at http://www.asce.org/pressroom/honors/cym\_awrds.cfm. Please be sure to use the proper form for the current award year as some forms have changed from last year.

The DANIEL W. MEAD PRIZE is awarded on the basis of paper on professional ethics. This topic for this year's paper is: "Is it ethical to use an engineering software program to solve a problem if you cannot complete the calculations manually?" Authors must be members of ASCE who are 35 years of age or less as of February 1, 2005.

The EDMUND FRIEDMAN YOUNG ENGINEER AWARD FOR PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENT recognizes the professional contributions of Younger Members of the Society for service, technical competence, high character, integrity, and leadership. Candidates must be members of ASCE who are 35 years of age or less as of February 1, 2005.

The YOUNG GOVERNMENT CIVIL ENGINEER AWARD recognizes distinguished civil engineers employed in public service for demonstrated leadership potential in Public Service Engineering. Candidates must be members of ASCE who are 35 years of age or less as of December 31, 2004.

The YOUNGER MEMBER GROUP AWARD recognizes the most outstanding Large and Small Younger Member Groups in the Society. Please note that the criteria for the Large and Small Younger Member Groups have been revised to reflect the current ASCE membership.

The COLLINGWOOD PRIZE is awarded to the author(s) of a paper (1) describing an engineering work with which the author(s) have been directly connected, or (2) recording the investigations contributing to engineering knowledge to which the author(s) have contributed some essential part, and (3) containing a rational digest of results. Author(s) must be member(s) of ASCE who were 35 years of age or less at the time the paper was submitted in essentially its final form.
